

HANDS ON JAPAN presents Champagne Drinking in a Private Temple

Have you ever wanted to escape from crowd and quietly rest by a Japanese garden? Then let's make it happen with a glass of Champagne and a French appetizer plate as well as a rare encounter with a monk. Enjoy a luxurious evening in a closed Buddhist temple with your travel fellows.

Price list

PAX	No. of Champagne bottles	No. of plum liqueur bottles	Tour price p.p. (JPY)	Total price for the group (tax included)
4	2	1	19,500	78,000
5	2	1	16,200	81,000
6	3	1	14,400	86,400
7	3	1	13,500	94,500
8	4	1	13,000	104,000
9	4	1	12,500	112,500
10	5	1	12,200	122,000
11	5	2	11,700	128,700
12	5	2	11,300	135,600
13	6	2	11,000	143,000
14	6	2	10,600	148,400
15	6	2	10,100	151,500

Inclusive: a French finger plate, liqueur bottles as listed, 2 hour venue use fee,

Important Notes

- The venue is a sub temple in Myoshinji Temple (5 min walk from JR Hanazono Station). Exact location to be revealed after booking.
- A staff of HANDS ON JAPAN is at the venue.
- Staying time at the temple is 2 hours (4PM~6PM).
- Extra Champagne bottle (6,500 yen) and plum liqueur (3,000 yen) can be added.
- Other liqueurs and foods can be arranged on a different price.
- Wearing socks is required.
- Transport to and from the temple can be arranged upon request.
- Booking to be made 2 days before.