Private Staying in a Kyoto's Traditional Townhouse

Free   2~8  JPY 9,000 ~ Ask

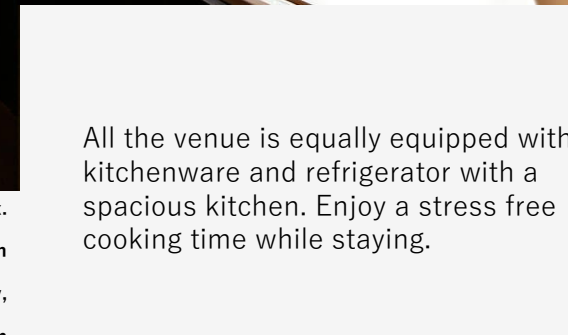

As a venue is not attended by anybody, a customer is required to complete check in at a different location first. Hands on Japan can attend guests from the check in to a staying venue to make sure they don't get lost.

Staying in a Japanese traditional townhouse doesn't always mean you sleep on the floor (there are a venue with a futon set). Western style bedding is equipped for guests to sleep like they do at home.

Bathrooms are designed in a way that people can relax in a Japanese style modern bathtub with a window offering you a sight of tsuboniwa, indoor garden. A range of amenity goods is first class.

All the venue is equally equipped with kitchenware and refrigerator with a spacious kitchen. Enjoy a stress free cooking time while staying.

HANDS ON JAPAN Ltd. presents you with at-home-like staying experience in Kyoto in collaboration with a machiya townhouse accommodation complex. The facility lets you rent a whole property of a traditional townhouse which was once a place of business of Kyoto's folks and has undergone a renovation to welcome guests from all over the world. Choose a venue to stay that suits your preference the most from 8 different townhouses located in Kyoto city, and enjoy a unique and absolute private staying experience while feeling the rich history of machiya from a stone footstep of an entrance to a wooden pillar in a living room. Each townhouse has its own features and capacity to meet a variety of guests' demands with the maximum capacity for a whole rent 8 people.
